Do You Think For Yourself?

Or do you open your mouth like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you?

Unquestionably intelligent thinking women, in need of help from weakness, nervousness, pain and suffering, then it means much to you that there is one tried and true home medicine or new composition, sold by druggists for the cure of women's ills.

The makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the cure of weak, nervous, run-down, over-worked, debilitated, pain-racked women, knowing this medicine to be made up of ingredients, every one of which has the strongest possible endorsement of the leading and standard authorities of the several schools of practice, are perfectly willing, and in fact, are only too glad to print, as they do, the formula, or list of ingredients, of which it is composed, in plain English, on every bottle wrapper.

The formula of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will bear the most critical examination of medical experts, for it contains no alcohol, narcotics, harmful, or habit-forming drugs, and no agent enters into it that is not highly recommended by the most advanced and leading medical teachers and authorities of their several schools of practice. These authorities recommend the ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for the cure of exactly the same ailments for which this world-famed medicine is advised.

No other medicine for women's ills has any such professional endorsement as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has received, in the unqualified recommendation of each of the several ingredients by scores of leading medical men of all the schools of practice. Is such an endorsement not worthy of your consideration?

A booklet of ingredients, with numerous authoritative professional endorsements by the leading medical authorities of this country, will be mailed free to any one sending name and address with request for same. Address: Dr. E. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

AN APRIL BLIZZARD.

Indiana was last night in the teeth of the worst April blizzard that has ever visited the state in scores of years.

In northern Indiana the snow is from two to four inches deep and in the central and southern parts of the state snow fell during the greater part of the day, but melted rapidly.

In some sections there was a coating of ice on still water and the fruit crop is badly damaged, if not entirely killed.

Owing to the warm weather of March and for 10 days of April, all fruits and vegetation were greatly advanced and the sudden drop in temperature will prove destructive in all parts of the state.

The center of the present storm is over northern Indiana and central Michigan and is unprecedented, considering the advanced condition of fruits and all kinds of vegetation.

Unseasonable cold weather prevailed throughout southern Ohio and northern Kentucky and Indiana yesterday. Rain fell Sunday night and yesterday morning, turning to snow in the afternoon.

Although fruit and vegetation are both well advanced, it is believed no damage has been done so far.

Temperature ranging from 27 degrees to 38 degrees above zero, accompanied by intermittent flurries of snow, were reported from western Missouri, eastern Kansas and southern Nebraska yesterday. Colder weather was predicted for last night.

Secretary Greene, of the Iowa State Horticultural Department, yesterday estimated that the loss to Iowa's fruit and vegetable crop from the freezing weather will be between $5,000,000 and $10,000,000. Snow was falling yesterday in many parts of Iowa.

"YOU WILL BE WELL STUNG."

John Armstrong Chaloner yesterday sent a message from his country home, Merry Mills, near Oxbow, to his brother, Robert Winthrop Chaloner, who is to wed the beautiful prima donna, Lena Cavalleri, but who has given to the public a statement that she did not love her intended husband. John Armstrong Chaloner's message read:

"Ex-Sheriff 'Bob' Chaloner, Windsor Arcade, Fifth Avenue and Forty-seventh street, New York:

"What did I tell you? I now come to be a prophet of first water. You will be as well stung in love as ex-lieu enant-governor was in politics. Fancy you will no longer say I am crazy for advising you to prepare for matrimony soon."

John Armstrong Chaloner is now at his country home. Following the message to his brother yesterday, Chaloner sent a copy to Richmond with the request that the "glad tidings" be spread.

Chaloner gave out an interview in Richmond on the day the engagement of his brother was announced. At that time he declared that "Bobb" had best put his estates in the hands of a trustee to prevent future matrimony proceedings."

MR. BRYAN AT HOME.

William J. Bryan came home yesterday. He reached New York full of enthusiasm about the wonders of South America, and with absolutely no ideas, so far as he was willing to admit, about the state of affairs politically in this country.

At the quarantine station a tug, with a reception committee composed of six men, awaited his coming through the morning. They were members of the Circum-Navigators Club, of which Mr. Bryan is a member. There was not a politician on hand to greet him. Toward noon the fog thinned out sufficiently to allow the Caracae to come up the bay.

Mr. Bryan left Little, Neb., on November 16, spending some time in the southern states. On December 26 he left Key West for Havana. Thence he went to Jamaica, Panama, Peru, Bolivia, Chili, Argentine and Brazil, returning by way of Porto Rico. "The subject of my trip," he said, "was the study of economic and sociological conditions in South America."

"What are the chances of the democratic party?" he was asked. "Good, always good," was the non-committal reply. He went on to say that he had been out of the country for so long that he had not been able to keep up on political conditions and could say little about the present situation. He thought, however, that the chances of the democrats in the coming congressional elections were unusually bright. He was asked if he would consider another candidacy for the presidency.

"I have said all I am going to say on that subject," he replied, emphatically. "I think my position is understood perfectly." He added that he hardly thought it necessary to deny stories to the effect that he was to become a candidate for the United States Senate and that he was going to embrace the prohibition movement.

"Did you hear of Dr. Cook?"

"Yes, everywhere I went in South America the papers said he was there. I met a Texas man who said that Dr. Cook was a democrat and asked me if I did not hope he had discovered the North Pole. I told him that while I could express no opinion on the controversy between Peary and Cook, I thought, as a general proposition, that

WORTH WEIGHT IN GOLD

Lady Learned About Cardui, The Woman's Tonic—and is Now Enthusiastic in its Praise.

Mount Pleasant, Tenn.—"Cardui is all you claim for it, and more," writes Mrs. M. E. Rail, of this place.

"I was a great sufferer for 2 years and was very weak, but I learned about Cardui, and decided to try it. Now I am in perfect health.

"My daughter, when changing into womanhood, got in very bad health. I gave her Cardui and now she enjoys good health.

"Cardui is worth its weight in gold. I recommend it for young and old."

Being composed exclusively of harmless vegetable ingredients, with a mild and gentle medicinal action, Cardui is the best medicine for weak, sick girls and women.

It has no harsh, powerful, near-poisonous action, like some of the strong minerals and drugs, but helps nature to perform a cure in a natural easy way.

Try Cardui.

a democrat would be more likely to discover the North Pole than a republican because the democrats have been out in the cold a long time and are used to it."

"ABSENT TREATMENT" FATAL.

Edward Jordan, 10 years old, son of Edward T. Jordan, a real estate man of Stamford, Conn., died yesterday of scarlet fever after an illness of two weeks.

The child's parents, it is said, refused to give him medical attendance, because such attendance was opposed to the religious belief of the mother, a Christian Scientist.

T. J. Biggs, health officer, stated yesterday that he and Dr. C. E. Rowell visited the Jordan home a week ago and diagnosed the case as one of scarlet fever, and tonight the house. Dr. Biggs said he would call it a case of the coroner to the death. While her son was ill, Mrs. Jordan made the statement over the telephone that the boy was receiving "absent treatment" from a Christian Scientist practitioner.

"I am giving my son no medicine, and I intend to give him none," said Mrs. Jordan. "I realize that God is with me and that He alone can heal my son."

Many Requests from Catarrh sufferers who use atomizers have caused us to put up Liquid Cream Balm, a new and convenient form of Ely's Cream Balm, the only remedy for Catarrh which can always be depended on. In power to allay inflammation, to cleanse the clogged air passages, to promote free, natural breathing, the two forms of Cream Balm are alike. Liquid Cream Balm is sold by all druggists for 75 cents, including spraying tube. Mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren street, New York.

TRIED TO AWAKEN MOTHER.

Baide her dead mother, 6-year-old Nellie Walsh was found yesterday at 413 east 123d street New York crying:

"Wake up, mamma, I'll be late for school."

Neighbors heard the girl sobbing and notified the east 126th street station. Two policemen forced the door and saw the girl kneeling at the side of a bed, continuously imploring her mother to "wake up."

Dr. Elliott, of the Harlem Hospital, said the woman, Hannah Walsh, had been dead three hours, apparently from apoplexy.

Nellie said her father died several years ago and she was entirely alone.
